Prayer Requests, November 7, 2018

These prayer requests are distributed at our Wednesday evening events, on the following Saturday night and Sunday morning, and over the internet. We believe strongly in prayer!

I'm writing on Tuesday afternoon of this week. I have voted, but I don't know the outcomes. At times, it's easier to be objective when certain facts are still unknown, so here are some of my thoughts:

1. This election was filled with lies, exaggerations, distortions and the hyperbole we always hear, "This is the most important election in our lifetime!" Pray for peace and sanity.
2. There will be new leaders in America. Pray that they can step outside of the rhetoric and actually do their jobs and do them well.
3. We will hear the standard claims that "we have a mandate" and "people are behind us." Pray for leaders to understand the lack of unity of our day and give them the wisdom to proceed with humility and wisdom rather than bombast.
4. We have been in an almost continuous election cycle—and new campaigns are beginning. Pray for leaders to stop campaigning long enough to deal effectively with the many issues we face.
5. Many Christians—even Christian leaders—have been more focused on America than on God. Pray that churches can refocus on God's work.
6. Many acted like the answers we need are "red" or "blue." Pray that America will seek help from God rather than from politicians. The answer is in Him; not them.

Pray for our Country!
