Prayer Requests February 13, 2019

These prayer requests are distributed at our Wednesday evening events, on the following Saturday night and Sunday morning, and over the internet. We believe strongly in prayer!

Prayer Thoughts

Bible Knowledge

Tomorrow is Valentine's Day, and, to be honest, I need to confess that I don't do Valentine's Day well. It sneaks up on me. I have a hard time being creative. And I don't like picking out cards.

It's not that I'm not romantic, or that I don't love Dawn . . . I'm just not good at Valentine's Day. And I'm pretty sure I'm not the only one.

You can read my full "confession" in tomorrow's email newsletter.

But, still, tonight, we can pray for our marriages and our spouses. Here are some ideas:

- Pray for your own spouse, that God will bless him/her in the next year.
- Pray for your own marriage, that it will be strengthened in the coming year.
- Pray for each of your children.
- Pray for the marriage and spouse of each of your married children.
- Pray for the future spouses of your unmarried children.
- And, if you have grandchildren, do the same for each of them.

The truth is that—other than our decision to follow Jesus—no decision is more important than who we marry and how we do marriage. We can make it if we're a failure at Valentine's Day.

But life is pretty miserable if we're failing in our marriage. Pray for yourself. Pray for your family. And pray for each other!
